

Last Update: June 16, 2020

DISCLAIMER:

The event organisers accept no liability for any damage whatsoever, whether personal or material. This also applies to any items of clothing or other objects. On receipt of a start number, each participant declares that there are no health reasons that could be construed as reason not to take part.

All participants recognise that the event organisers are not liable for damages of any kind and will not enter into any claim for compensation against the organisers and sponsors, the local authorities and landowners through whose land the race runs, or their representatives in the case of any damages or injuries of any kind that may ensue following participation in the event. Each participant declares that he/she has trained appropriately for the race, is physically fit, and their condition of health has been verified by medical experts. The race doctor, emergency services, and race organisers are authorised to remove any runner from the race who is deemed to be physically or mentally too weak. On registering, all participants agree that data concerning their registration in the Hochkönigman event, photos, movies, and interviews on radio, television, advertising material, books, photo-mechanical copies (films, videocassettes etc.) may be used without requesting further permission. Participants must ensure that their year of birth is correct, and that their start number has not been given to any other person. In cases of no-shows, no refund is possible. (Please note: regarding data protection, your data will be electronically stored).

Once the registration fee has been paid, participants have no claim for reimbursement if an event has to be cancelled or postponed due to a force majeure event owing to legal requirements.

COVID19: If there is an infection or outbreak of Covid19 at the Hochkönigman, then the participant waives all legal steps and has to hold the organiser entirely harmless!

All participants accept that, also in the case of no available membership of a club or association, various anti-doping requirements (doping controls) of the ATRA must be met.

The Hochkönigman event is run according to the guidelines of the Austrian Trail Running Association (ATRA). Participants can view the guidelines of the ATRA on the Austrian Association homepage www.trailrunning-verband.at or at the following Link: <https://itra.run/page/291/Security.html> and are obliged to adhere to the regulations of the ATRA.

“Athletes are obliged to abide by the anti-doping regulations set out in the Anti-Doping Federal Law of 2007, as well as any appropriate regulations put in place by relevant national and international specialist sport associations (in particular any statutes, sports rules, and competition regulations). Anyone who is, or was at the time of any potential contravention of anti-doping regulations, a member or a licence-holder of a sport organisation or another body belonging to such an organisation, and anyone who participates in competitions that are organised by a sport organisation or connected body or receives the help of federal support is deemed to be an athlete.

The organisers and event hosts are strictly against any form of doping. As a participant, you must assure us that you have not taken, and will not take any kind of banned substance or other method of doping. Information about as to whether medications and treatment methods are banned is available from www.nada.at/medikamentenabfrage. This service is provided by the national anti-doping agency (NADA Austria) and is available as the “MedApp” for android and IOS.

If a participant is obliged under the direction of medical professionals to take banned substances or use methods that are not permitted, we recommend keeping all medical reports and documents in case information is needed retrospectively as an exceptional case.

For more information, visit www.nada.at/medizin/krankheit-oder-verletzung

The Hochkönigman team wishes all participants a successful completion of the race, and a great trail running experience around the Hochkönig.

Subject to change, possibly at short notice!